

RANDOM ACTS of KINDNESS DAY

February 2023 Newsletter

Spread the Love

Random Act of Kindness Week kicks off on February 14th and Friday the 17th is Random Act of Kindness Day. As the name implies, these occasions honor and encourage spontaneous acts designed to spread kindness and positivity. Your acts of kindness don't need to be large, dramatic, clever, or costly gestures to make a difference. And they don't need to be confined to a single day or week. Why not make daily, weekly, or monthly random acts of kindness a habit in your life? It will enhance your overall wellbeing. Generosity releases good chemicals like oxytocin, serotonin, and endorphins, which help to reduce stress, anxiety, and depression. Unexpected kindness offers feel-good benefits for both the doer and the recipient.

Here are some simple ideas for brightening someone's day with the unexpected:

- Write a note of appreciation to a different work colleague every day for the week.
- Bring flowers to an elderly neighbor.
- Pay for coffee, gas, groceries, or a movie ticket for a stranger behind you in line.
- Donate blood or sign up as an organ donor.

- Leave a small treat, a thank you note, or a few dollars for your mail carrier, bus driver, or other service person.
- Send a care package to a service member on active duty.
- Bring freshly baked goods or fresh flowers to share in the workplace.
- Participate in a community fundraiser by walking, running, or biking.
- Volunteer to help cook or serve dinner at a community pantry.
- Buy school supplies for a classroom or a teacher.
- Spend time with someone who recently suffered a loss.
- Bring coupons you aren't using to the store. Leave them near the products so others can find them.
- In cold weather, buy warm gloves, hats, and socks to give to homeless people or shelters.

February Focus: Relationships

It's easy to take the relationships we have with the people around us for granted. It's only human to fall into routine patterns. But if something goes wrong, it can really rock our world when we didn't see it coming. Like anything worthwhile, maintaining good, dynamic relationships with family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues takes awareness, effort, and practice. If you're experiencing difficulties with an important relationship in your life, you can call an EAP counselor to discuss the issue and get help.

Don't Forget!

EAP services are available to you and your household members as well as dependent children living away from home, up to age 26.
